THE AMERICAS
A THEATRE COMPANY

KXT ON BROADWAY 28-31ST AUGUST

L-O-V-E

A PLAY BY ALLAN STAPLES & KAI PAYNTER

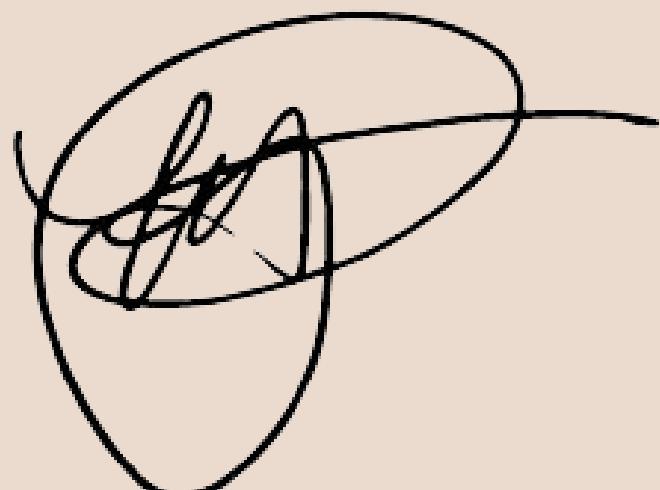

— Director's Note —

It's all been so serendipitous, and I still can't believe that only after a couple of months we're here...launching The Americas, A Theatre Co. at KXT and performing the premiere of L-O-V-E with the best cast & crew a girl could ask for. It's a dream come true!

I remember reading Allan's play, Brave People, and knowing I had to direct it. The rest, as they say, is history. If I explained how the pieces came together, I'm not sure anyone would believe me. The only other time I experienced this was in & around the time my mother passed. I felt led, carried - sometimes not even knowing what day it was or if I had slept. And yet, everything came together, like she never left. The journey of The Americas, A Theatre Co. has been no different, and I can only describe that feeling as love...

Special thanks to Boipelo Mawasha, Richard Price at Sydney Sports Management Group, the team at KXT, Hunter McMahon from Sydney Acting Studio, and my one & only, Kirk.

@kirk_Hastings

Ruby Jenson

Asst. Producer | BearTiger Productions

Co-Producer | L-O-V-E

Ruby is excited for her first theatre production role, working alongside Kai and Kirk to bring L-O-V-E and The Americas, A Theatre Company to life at KXT on Broadway. Ruby has an extensive background as a corporate project manager and has always been passionate about the arts and ensuring creative voices have the opportunity to be heard.

She has completed training with AFTRS, NIDA and Actors Centre Australia, and in her spare time you can find her on the back of her trusty steed King, cantering around Terrey Hills!

Mark Scoles

Stage Manager

Mark is a dynamic newcomer to stage management, using his extensive film production expertise to ensure seamless operations and exceptional quality at The America's Gala.

Mark was a DJ for 5 years and during that time he played at some of the biggest nightclubs in Sydney and interstate, along with plenty of music festivals.

Nathan Winslow

Lighting & Sound Designer

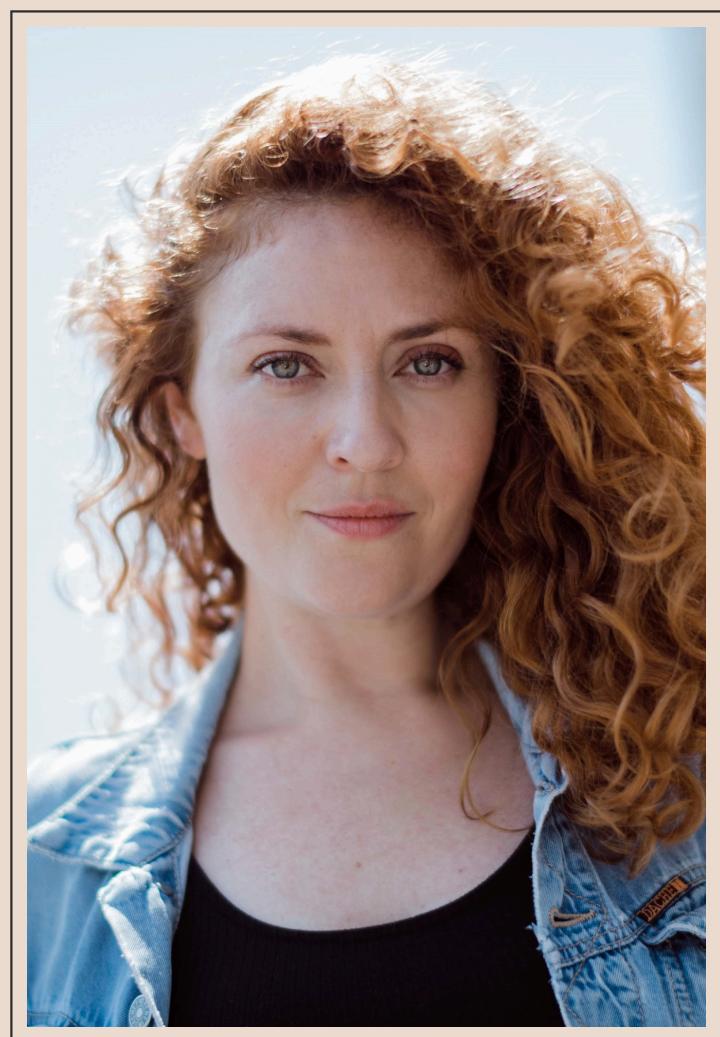

Nathan Winslow is a film student at the University of Newcastle. The focus of his studies, and his time in the entertainment industry thus far has focussed sound - location sound, sound design and radio-plays. He found his calling on the set of Strangers in a Carpark and Veil of Whispers. He has worked on feature length, short films, and advertising campaigns, as well as events and stage productions. Nathan has also overseen lighting for University plays, worked in the control room for the Chromatic Festival, and the feature film Under the Red. Outside of the arts, Nathan has been boxing competitively for a few years and playing games for a few decades! He is excited to be the Lighting and Sound designer for L-O-V-E because... if you do what you love, you never work a day. @sidestrikesound

Reena Akthar

Set Designer

Reena is a proud Fijian-Indian director, bringing her unique cultural perspective to the stage. With a burgeoning stage career, she has directed and produced two plays, earning the People's Choice award for her second play at the Short+Sweet Festival in 2024 (week 8). Born and educated in Western Sydney, Reena now calls the vibrant Inner West her home, while combating cybercrime at her day job. Her passion for storytelling and unwavering dedication to her craft honour the legacy of those who believed in her from the very beginning. Reena is thrilled to work with The Americas, A Theatre Company as set designer and overall creative cheerleader.

Jasmin Certoma

Actor / Script & Stage Advisor

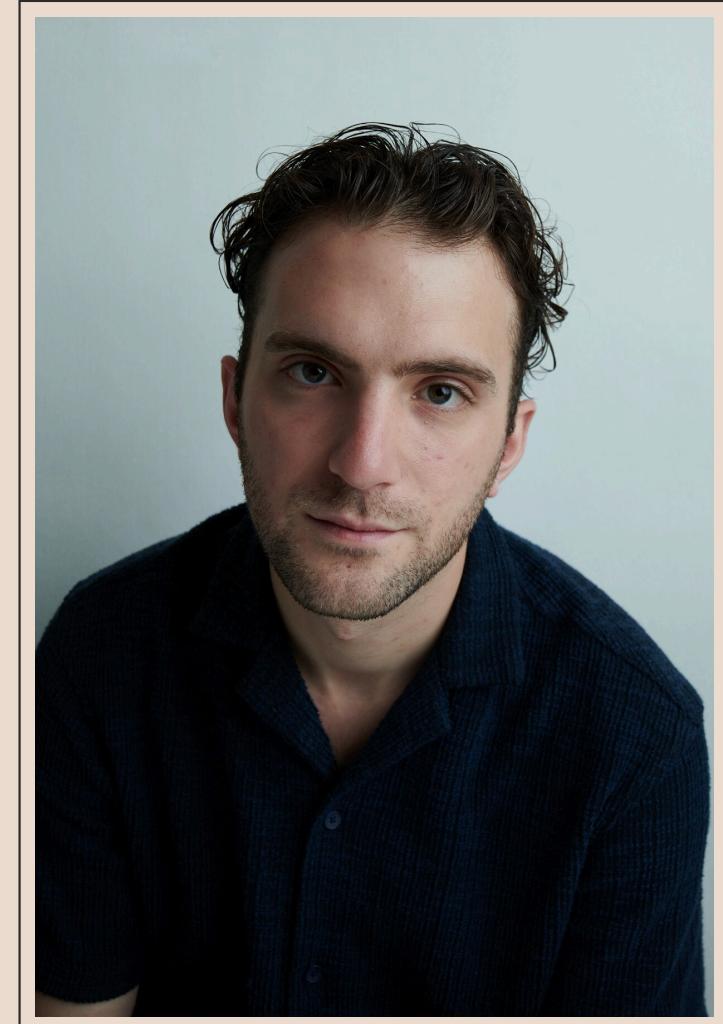

After graduating from the Actors College, Jasmin went to London to tour plays around the U.K. Upon returning to Sydney she went onto star, write and produce her own films such as Modern Mating, and Walk In My Shoes, as well as other independent films. She also teamed with Impolite Productions to co-create and star in Inadequate, which was picked up by the streaming service Roku. Jasmin returned to the stage and starred as Tess in New Theatre's Chimerica and Marianna in Well Actually Productions We're All Terrible, with both receiving rave reviews. Most recently she appeared in Home And Away and various commercials. Jasmin was delighted to win the Best Actress Runner-Up at the Short+Sweet Festival 2024 for Brave People.

Dominic Di Paolo

Stand-in / Stage Manager

Dominic Di Paolo is a graduate of the New York Film Academy, Sydney Acting Studio and Improv Theatre Sydney. He is an Australian actor of Italian and Lebanese heritage with a profound passion for storytelling. His theatrical credits include standout performances in productions such as "Don's Party", "After Dinner", and "Gruesome Playground Injuries".

Dominic has also made his mark on the silver screen in "Mercy of Others", his debut feature film. In his spare time Dominic enjoys the company of sharks and fish, often scuba diving and working towards his divemaster qualification.

Eddie Langford

Stand-in / Marketing Support

Eddie Langford graduated from The Australian Institute of Music with a Bachelor of Music (Music Theatre) in 2022 and is currently rehearsing for Blackout Theatre Company's Avenue Q! Last year, Eddie had the privilege of performing the role of Leo Bloom in Holroyd Musical and Dramatic Society's production of 'The Producers'. His other theatrical credits include Anthony the Squirrel in 'Nutz!: A New Musical' (MUSE, 2023), Whiffle/Ensemble in 'Cry Baby' (MUSE, 2023), Voice 5 in '35MM: A Musical Exhibition' (MacMS, 2023), and Mr. and Dennis in 'Sunday in the Park with George' (MUSE, 2022). In his spare time he likes to make art, play the piano, and play video games (he's a total nerd).

@eddiejlangford

Shakira Clanton

Actor

Shakira Clanton is a proud Wongatha, Yamatji and Noongar, Gitja yorga (woman) from Whadjuk Noongar Boodjar (Perth), as well as being African American with Native American ancestry on her father's side.

Credits include: Don't Ask What the Bird Look Like, Barbara and the Camp Dogs (with Belvoir St Theatre), The Long Forgotten Dream (Sydney Theatre Company), I'm With Her, Still I Rise (Darlinghurst Theatre Company) York (Black Swan Theatre Company), The Weekend (Moogahlin Performing Arts) and The Weekend (Carriageworks).

Her television credits include: Frayed, Preppers, Eden, Diary of an Uber Driver, Doctor Doctor, Wellmania, Summer Love.

Shakira completed her acting training at NIDA in 2015, and was nominated for Best Actress at the Sydney Theatre Awards for her role in The Weekend.

Gezel Bardossi

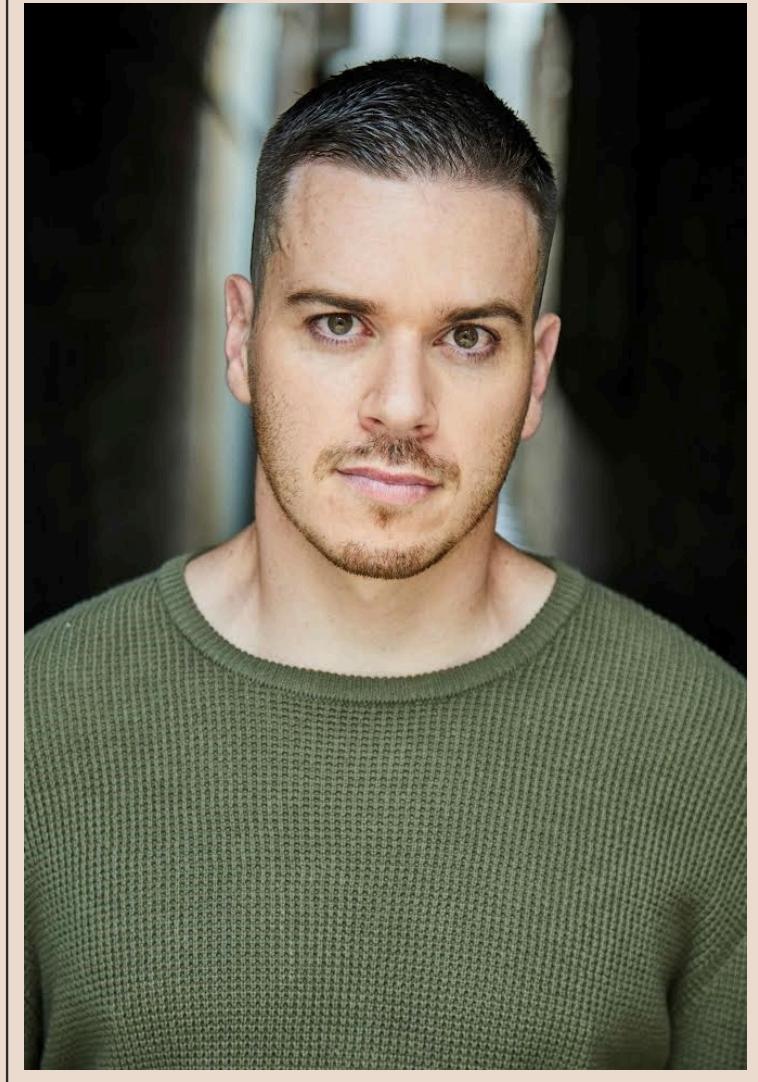

Actor

Gezel has a beautiful mix of ethnicity being (English, Italian, French, Greek & German). In 2022, Gezel booked the supporting role of Blair in the Australian Feature film Public Eye, a credited speaking role in Season 14 of the US series Deadly Women and the lead role in 2 professional short films. She was one of the leads in the multi award winning music video Monska, and in a video for JoJo Siwa (on the Oprah Chanel "OWN").

Gezel is extremely comfortable on stage, recently playing the lead child role of Summer in Andrew Lloyd Webber's School of Rock at the Qudos Bank Arena and Gabriella in the professional theatre production of Georgina. She also enjoys the title of youngest talent globally for the The Voice, participating in Australia's Season 12, in Team Rita's Top 6. In 2024, Gezel was awarded "NSW Woman of The Year Award" in "The Ones to Watch" category.

As though all of this is not enough, Gezel is also a keen baker! She loves to bake cakes, bread, pizzas – all from scratch. Look out Paul Hollywood.

Alex Baum

Resident Actor | The Americas, A Theatre Co.

Actor | L-O-V-E

Alex Baum is a QUT graduate and has appeared in numerous plays from Julius Caesar as Octavius, Things I Know To Be True as Mark/Mia and The Glass Menagerie as Jim.

He most recently took part in the Sydney Short & Sweet Festival as well as playing Dasher in Sydney Acting Studio's production of the Eight Reindeer Monologues.

During the pandemic Alex decided to live out his childhood fantasy of becoming Robin Hood, and took up archery! Alex is incredibly excited and grateful to be a part of L-O-V-E and can't wait to share these stories with all of you.

Jordan Thompson

Resident Actor | The Americas, A Theatre Co.

Actor | L-O-V-E

Jordan is a Sydney-based actor who studied at Screenwise School of Film and Television with a focus on screen technique and character portrayal. Jordan is thrilled to be making her theatre debut in L-O-V-E, bringing her on-screen experiences to live audiences.

Jordan lived in LA for a year when she was 18 and was born with only 9 toes... but that hasn't stopped her from kicking goals.

Her short film credits include The Valley 91, Rupture, Wasteland and Rescue. Most recently, Jordan took on a lead role as Kennedy in Independent Feature Film The Last.

Andrea Magpulong

Actor

Andrea is a Filipinx-Australian actor and improviser who holds a Bachelor of Media Arts (Honours) from UNSW. Her theatre credits include: Short Blanket as Lainey, The 8 as Blitzen, 12 Angry Jurors as Juror 4, Ate Lovie as Lovie Understudy, Wasted as Charlotte.

Screen credits include: Nothing In Between, Queen of Oz, Strife.

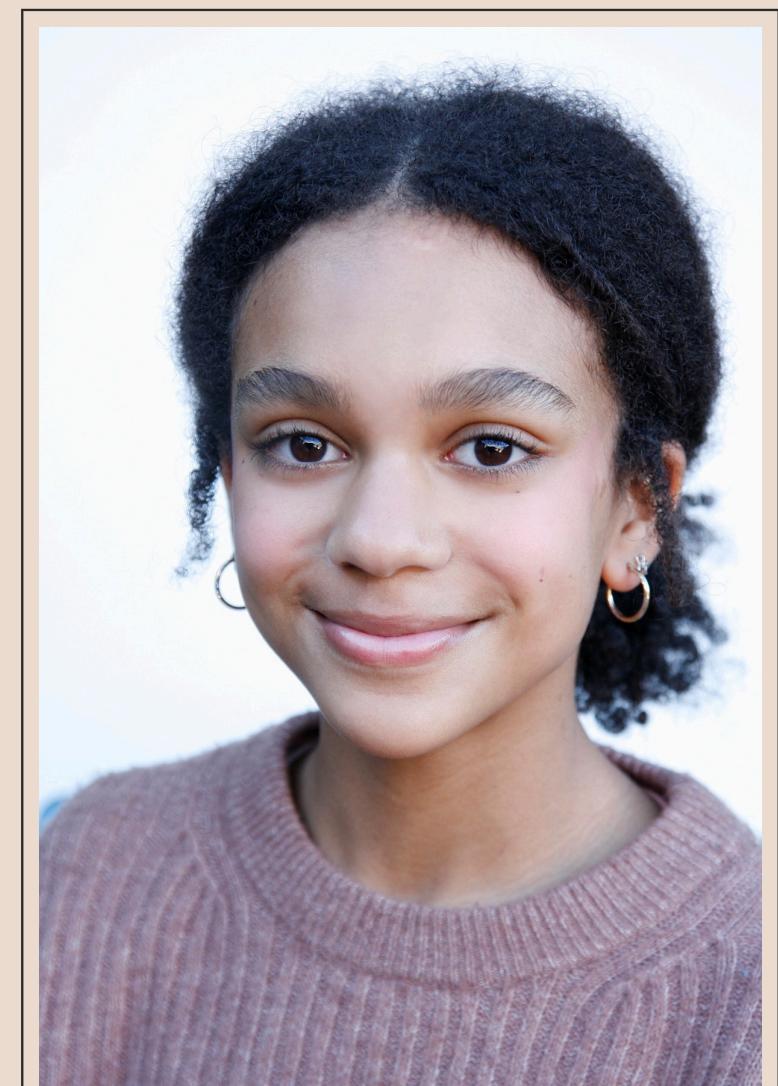

Andrea is part of the improv group Fillow Talk, their show Pamamanhikan was a finalist in ‘Best in Comedy’ at the Sydney Fringe Festival 2023. In her down-time, Andi likes to play guitar and play Dungeons & Dragons with her best friends.

Erika Ndibe

Actor

While only being 11 years old, Erika has been acting in film and TV commercials for seven years! In 2023 Erika was cast in her first supporting actor role in Australian short film Souvenir.

In addition to acting, Erika has been a performance dancer since she was four and she plays the piano.

HollyMae Steane Price

Photographer

Hailing from Wales, HollyMae began her photography journey with her mother's camera, chasing butterflies in the vegetable garden and failing to capture any images of the beautiful creatures. Since then – and having been gifted a camera of her own when she was 12 – HollyMae fell in love with the art of capturing fleeting moments in time with her camera. Her journey began with the breathtaking landscapes of Wales: the castles, mountains, wildlife and rivers; flowers and fauna, and her archaeological endeavours, and continues with the wide horizons and big skies of Australia. Now living on Gadigal Country in Sydney's Inner West, HollyMae has combined her lifelong love for theatre with her skills in photography.

Along with her involvement with L-O-V-E, her work includes rehearsals, tech and dress run photography for productions by New Ghosts Theatre Company, Akimbo & Co, Andy Freeborn at the Old Fitz Theatre, and Yellow Line Theatre at the Joan Sutherland Performing Arts Centre. When she is not at the theatre, HollyMae is an archaeologist... not the Indiana Jones type though!
